Some fees are a reasonable estimate; actual costs vary depending on circumstances including time, location, duration, etc. All fees are subject to change and any fees not paid to MAA are not under the control or discretion of MAA. On occasion, MAA may be able to offer monetary grants based on a child's special needs and a family's financial situation. Please ask the Program Director for details.

Fee Categories. In accordance with Hague regulations, all adoption fees are identified by the following categories:

- Agency fees include, but are not limited to, personnel costs, administrative overhead, operational costs, training and education, communications and publications costs, and any other cost related to providing adoption services in the United States.
- Foreign country expenses include, but are not limited to, costs for personnel, administrative overhead, training, education, legal services, communications, and any other costs related to providing adoption services in Philippines.
- Care of the Child (in Philippines prior to adoption) include, but are not limited to, costs for food, clothing, shelter, and medical care; foster care; orphanage care; and other services provided directly to the child.
- Translation and document expenses include, but are not limited to, costs for obtaining, translating, or copying records or documents required to complete the adoption; costs for the child's Philippines court documents, passport, adoption certificate, and other documents related to the adoption; and costs for notarizations and certifications.
- Charitable Development fee is a fixed contribution amount that goes directly to child protection or child welfare services programs run by MAA. MAA may also contribute a portion of the fees collected for Home Studies and for Agency Placement Fees to charitable aid. MAA provides ongoing humanitarian aid, both domestically and overseas, to help fulfill our mission to provide hope, love and a permanent family to children in need.

ADOPTION-RELATED EXPENSES (ESTIMATES ONLY)

*The fees set forth above do not include ALL various adoption-related expenses that the Adoptive Parent(s) pay directly to third parties. These expenses include, without limitation travel costs, which vary considerably with the season and amount of time available to make travel plans; Home Study (for out-of-state clients); or certification/authentication fees charged by other parties, which can vary greatly from state to state. While MAA's U.S. stateside agency fees will not change during your adoption, all other fees, including foreign program fees are subject to changes beyond our agency's control. The costs of any of these expenses are in the control of third parties over whom MAA has no control, and, therefore, the costs could change at any time. MAA assumes no liability if the actual cost of any of the expenses estimated therein exceeds estimates.

GRANT RECEIPT AND DISBURSEMENT POLICY – In case of grants, MAA will run a final statement for all fees due to MAA. Credits will be issued only for amounts over the final statement amount. MAA cannot disburse funds to an adoptive family in advance of receiving the grant or donation check. Checks must clear the bank before they are credited to a family's account. It is the adoptive family's responsibility to pay for adoption costs and expenses as they are due.
